

i drive trucks for a living. i use my xm radio primarily for up to date traffic and weather, as well as cuurent events. To be able to tune to a city traffic before i get to it has saved me countless hour in valueable drive time. having the knowledge traffic and weather before i get allows me to alter my route to avoid costly delays.